

Buyer's Guarantee

If within 7 days following the sale a licensed veterinarian of the buyer's certifies that , at the time of sale, the puppy was unfit for purchase due to illness or disease, or if, within 1 year following the sale of the puppy subject to this section, a licensed veterinarian of the buyers certifies such puppy to be unfit for purchase due to a congenital or hereditary disorder which adversely affects the health of the puppy the seller shall afford the buyer the right to choose one of the following options: Exclusions: If the buyer does not take the puppy to the veterinarian within 7 days of receiving the puppy the guarantee is null and void.

The right to return the puppy and receive an exchange puppy of the buyer's choice of equivalent value or pay the difference. The cost of returning the puppy is the responsibility of the buyer.

The buyer must notify the seller within 2 business days after the veterinarian's determination that the puppy is unfit. The written certification of unfitness must be presented to the seller not later than 3 business days following receipt thereof by the buyer.

The seller may specifically state at the time of sale, in writing to the buyer, the presence of specific congenital or hereditary disorders, in which case the consumer has no right to any refund or exchange for those disorders.

A puppy may not be determined unfit for sale on account of an injury sustained or illness contracted after the buyer takes possession of the puppy. A veterinary finding of intestinal or external parasites is not grounds for declaring a puppy unfit for sale unless the animal is clinically ill because of that condition.
